

Motion Approved by GPC 9-16-13

The GPC discussed the option of allowing the Pearson Test of English (PTE) academic examination to serve as an alternative to the TOEFL exam for international students. A minimum score of 55 was established for admissions.

It was moved to accept a minimum score of 55 on the PTE test and a required review of all language tests by the GPC every three years.